PARTNERSHIP OVER PARTISANSHIP

Have you ever wanted to be part of a growing, dynamic center where politics and current events are explored in a civil, fresh and thought-provoking way? Where people from every walk of life are encouraged to engage in the democratic process? Where patriotism, sacrifice and duty are celebrated?

Now you have the rare opportunity to become a member of one of the nation's leading bipartisan political institutes. As a Friend of the Dole Institute, you will join in Senator Bob Dole's vision to promote historical scholarship, encourage civil public debate, shape public policy and promote the genius of American democracy.

During Dole's formidable career as a U.S. congressman, senator, senate Republican leader and presidential candidate, he was a leader in promoting bipartisan politics. He believed that strong convictions must co-exist with mutual respect, that what unites us as American patriots is greater than what divides us. Now the Institute that bears his name continues his lifelong work to make America the best it can be. We hope you'll pick up the torch and join us in this important mission as a Friend of the Dole Institute.

Three U.S. Presidents, two Supreme Court justices and two Nobel Peace Prize recipients have shared their views at the Dole Institute. Top to bottom: Congresswoman Carol Moseley Braun visits with Ann and Bob Regnier; Civil rights icon Congressman John Lewis received the 2007 Dole Leadership Prize; Ben Ginsberg attorney involved with Bush v. Gore in the 2000 Florida recount; Political and environmental activist Winona LaDuke; former NFL commissioner Paul Tagliabue signs autographs; Roland and Winona Rhodes with Newsweek contributing editor Eleanor Clift; Tom Brokaw and Scottie Lingelbach before the 2008 Dole Lecture; and 1998 presidential candidate Michael Dukakis visits with students. The next page features Senators Bob and Elizabeth Dole during their Dole Lecture 2009 interview.

They've toured exhibits like the tribute to the victims of September 11, a Memory Wall honoring Kansas' World War II veterans and interactive displays on Senator Dole's life.
